

STRATEGIC FINANCIAL SKILLS FOR THE ENERGY INDUSTRY

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday
5:30 Reception 6:15 Program Introduction 7:00 Group Dinner	8:00 Financial Accounting Overview Case Study	8:00 Financial Forecasting/Capital Planning Case Study Continued
	10:15 Break	10:00 Break
	10:30 Insights from Financial Analysis Case Study	10:15 Capital Investments Analysis Case Study
	12:30 Lunch - Collins	12:30 Lunch - Collins
	1:30-4:00 Managing Accounting Overview Case Study	1:30-4:00 Performance Evaluation in Times of Uncertainty Case Study
Evenings: Individual preparation for the following day.

Quick Facts

Strategic Financial Skills for the Energy Industry

- Tuition: $6,250
- Length: Six-day program
- Average class size: 25 to 30
- Instructor-to-participant ratio: 5:25
- Location: SMU campus in Dallas, Texas, USA

Registration: Apply online at www.exed.cox.smu.edu/sfsm or phone 1-800-768-6699 in the United States or 214-768-3335 outside the United States.

Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
8:00 Basics of Oil & Gas Accounting Case Study	8:00 Oil & Gas Financial Statements: Disclosures & Analysis	8:00 Financial Engineering
10:15 Break	10:00 Break	9:30 Break
10:30 Financial Analysis of Large Projects	10:15 Analyzing Acquisitions in the Energy Industry	9:45 Creating Shareholder Value Case Study
12:30 Lunch - Collins	12:00 Lunch - Collins	11:30 Program Close
1:30-4:00 Capital Acquisition/ Cost of Capital Case Study	1:00-3:00 Mergers & Acquisitions in the Energy Industry Continued
	5:30 Group Dinner Meadows Museum

“Excellent! The program was well planned and covered significant material in the one-week format. I now have a better understanding of financial analysis and plan to use this understanding in future decision making.”

Steen Jergensen

Geological Engineer, Newfield Exploration
Houston, Texas